NOTE

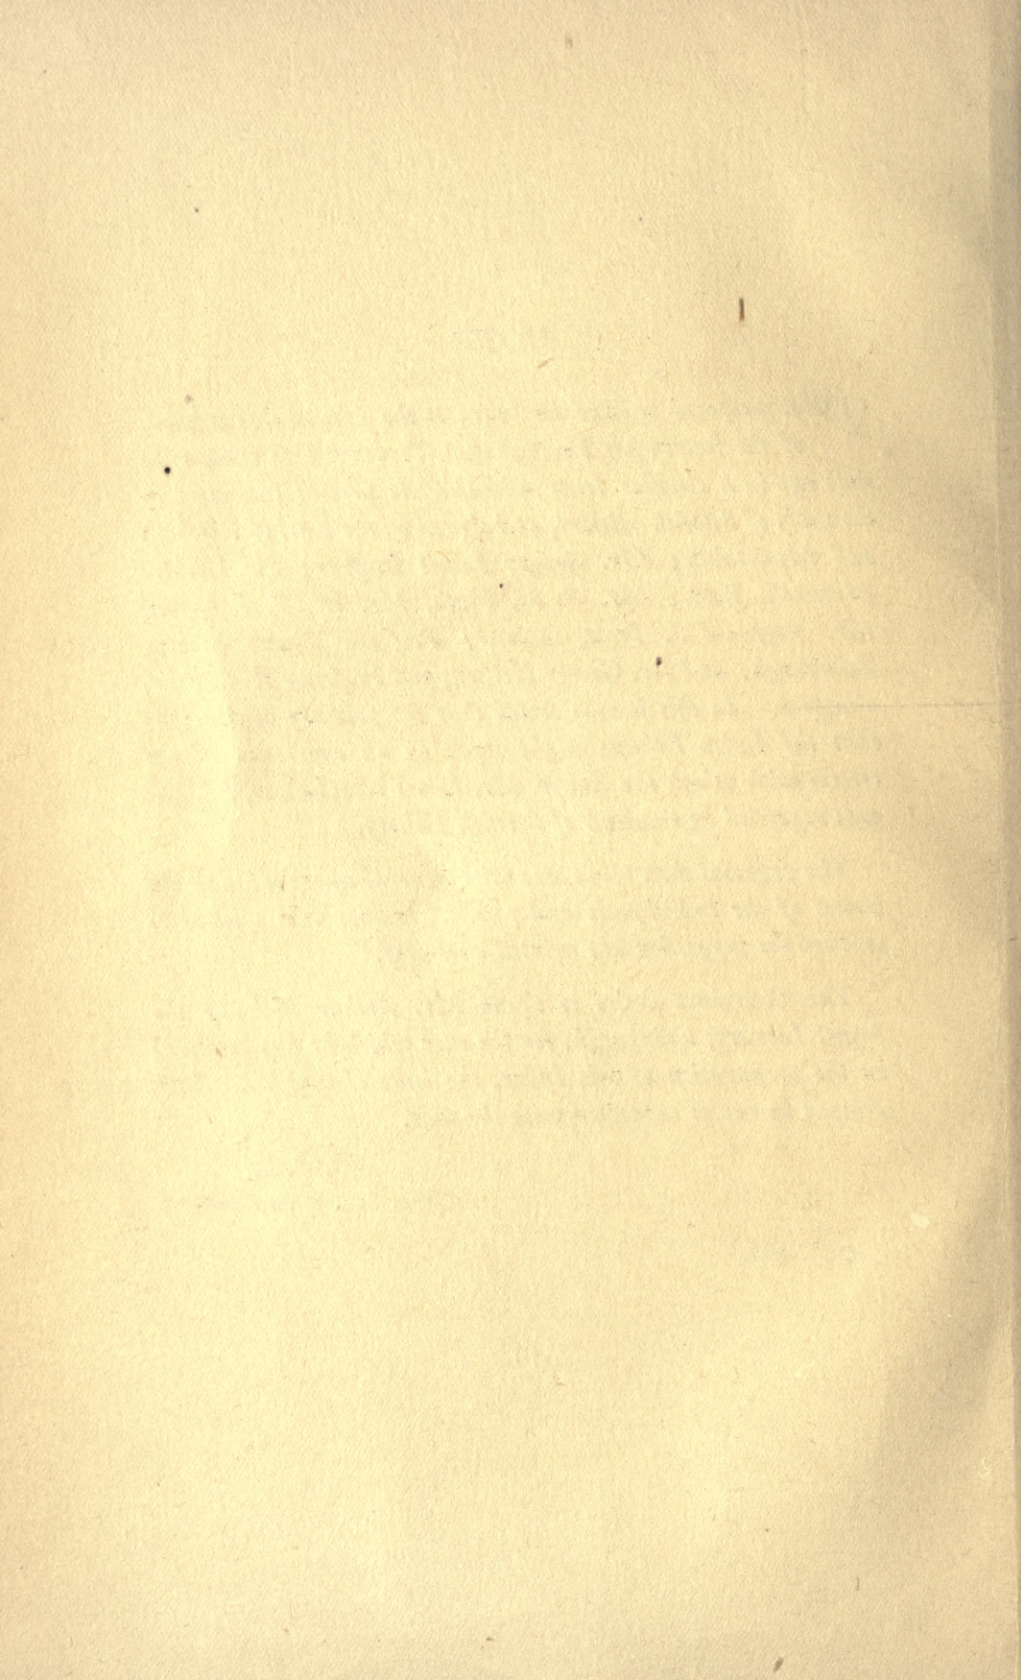

THE proposal to issue an Index to the first twelve volumes of the SCOTTISH HISTORICAL REVIEW was made some time ago in a circular letter addressed to persons interested in the study of Scottish History, and signed by the Earl of Rosebery and Midlothian; Mr. Arthur James Balfour; Sir Herbert Maxwell, Bart.; Mr. C. H. Firth, Mr. W. P. Ker, and Mr. Reginald L. Poole, Oxford; Professor Hume Brown, Edinburgh; and Dr. George Neilson, and Professor R. S. Rait, Glasgow. In this it was stated that the primary motive was that the Index Volume might serve as an expression of the esteem with which the Editor, Mr. James MacLehose, LL.D., was regarded by Students of Scottish History.

The proposal then made met with general approval, and the names of the individuals and public libraries who wished to further the suggestion are printed over-leaf.

The Committee desire to thank Mr. Arthur Mill, of the Signet Library, Edinburgh, for the care which he has bestowed on the preparation of this Index, the issue of which has been delayed by causes connected with the war.

D. B. S.,
Hon. Secy. to the Committee.

April, 1918.
